You are the reason that I understand
You know what I'm feeling with the touch of your hand
You're there when I stumble and you break my fall
Und jedes Mal wenn ich bei dir bin
Erleuchtet die Stadt und einfach alles macht Sinn
Sehe deine Augen, sehe das Feuer, sehe das Feuer darin

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better than this

Waking up while I feel your kiss

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better than this

Falling asleep to the taste of your lips

Goldener Anker am silbernen Herz
Du ziehst mich an Land, an dich ran und nicht wegwärts
Bist meine Brücke, die nach oben führt
And every time you walk in a room
My eyes light up at the sight of you
Walking my way as the men stop and stare

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better than this

Waking up while I feel your kiss

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better than this

Falling asleep to the taste of your lips

Es geht niemals besser, don't get better than this

Es geht niemals besser, than the taste of your lips

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better than this

Waking up while I feel your kiss

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better than this

Falling asleep to the taste of your lips

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better

Waking up while I feel your kiss, it don't get better

Es geht niemals besser, it don't get better

I come alive 'cause I know you exist
